Who, What, Where, How?

Who: Isaac Alderson will be back with us this year for the Winter Solstice Concerts on December 20 & 21!!! So the band will be: Isaac, Jesse Langen (guitarist from Chicago, woohoo!), James Oxley, Kathryn Montoya, Jackie Moran, Sue Richards and me!

What: The Barn House Concerts are distinctly different from the big band concerts. They are uniquely intimate, extraordinarily soulful, and there's a big red dog. The EG concerts will be played with wild abandon, as usual.

Where: The Barn House – 1730 Crownsville Road, Annapolis.
Church of the Nativity & Holy Comforter – 419 Cedarcroft Road, Baltimore, 21212.
St. Margaret's Church – 1601 Pleasant Plains Road, Annapolis, 21409.

How: Yep, it takes a lot to do this. The "how" part is always a mystery. James and Kathryn are living in England now. Sue is in North Carolina. Jesse and Jackie are in Chicago, and Isaac is in New York. It is a kind of miracle. I am so grateful that Ginger and Ronn are still in the area!

News: It turns out Ensemble Galilei is more popular than we ever knew. We have over 17 million streams on Spotify and our big cities are London, Paris, and Seattle – with lots of other listeners around the world. It's remarkable and fascinating. There is a lot of interesting data about our listeners, including the fact that most of them are in their twenties and thirties. Who knew?

One more thing: We are working on a new CD that will be out next year. It's truly thrilling!

Yours truly,
Carolyn
